We would like to invite all international full-degree students to the integration course WELCOME TO THE CZECH REPUBLIC (for non-EU students mainly).

The course is financed by the Ministry of the Interior of the Czech Republic and is intended for newly arrived foreigners from non-EU countries. The course will provide students with important information for your stay in the Czech Republic - especially during the first months upon your arrival. You may ask questions concerning your residence legislation, visas, employment, housing, health insurance etc. More info
